J-54: Admission for British Columbia Youth in Care

Effective Date:

For admission to the 2016 Winter Session and thereafter.

Approval Date:

Approved by the Okanagan Senate on 25 February 2016 and by the Vancouver Senate on 17 February 2016.

Review Date:

This policy shall be reviewed three (3) years after approval and thereafter as deemed necessary by the responsible committee.

Responsible Committee:

Admissions Committee of the Vancouver Senate; and Admissions and Awards Committee of the Okanagan Senate

Authority:

University Act:

S. 37(1)

“The academic governance of the university is vested in the senate and it has the following powers:

(b) to establish committees it considers necessary and, by 2/3 vote of its members present, to delegate to one or more committees those of its powers as it may determine;”

(c) to determine all questions relating to the academic and other qualifications required of applicants for admission as students to the university or any faculty, and to determine in which faculty the students pursuing a course of study must register.”

Purpose and Goals:

The purpose of this policy is to provide a mechanism for flexibility, with respect to individual UBC faculty or school competitive admission thresholds, for prospective students who are living or have lived as a child in care in British Columbia between the ages of 12 and 19.

Applicability:

This policy is applicable to any applicant to direct-entry undergraduate programs offered by faculties of the University who is a current or former child in care of the province of British Columbia, is a resident of British Columbia, and is either a Canadian citizen or Permanent Resident.

Exclusions:

None.

Definitions:

For the purposes of this policy:

Child shall mean a person under 19 years of age and includes a youth.

Child in care shall mean a child who is in the custody, care or guardianship of a director or a director of adoption.

Designated Representative shall mean a representative of the Nisga’a Lisims Government, a treaty first nation, an Indian band or aboriginal community designated in accordance with the Child, Family and Community Service Regulation, B.C. Reg. 527/95.

Direct-entry undergraduate program shall mean a course of study offered by the University leading to a degree to which applicants are generally admitted based primarily upon either their secondary school academic performance or transfer from a comparable program at another post-secondary institution.

Director shall mean a person designated by the Minister of Children and Family Development of British Columbia pursuant to s. 91 of the Child, Family and Community Service Act, RSBC 1996, c. 46.

Guardianship shall include the rights, duties and responsibilities of a parent.

Temporary Custody Order shall mean an order made under section 41 (1) (b) or (c), 42.2 (4) (b) or (c), 49 (7) (b) or (c) or 54.01 (9) (b) or (c) of the Child, Family and Community Service Act, RSBC 1996, c. 46, placing a child for a specified period in the custody of a director or another person, and includes any extension of or change to that order.

Youth shall mean a person who is 16 years of age or over but is under 19 years of age.

Youth Agreement shall mean a written agreement between a director and a youth pursuant to s. 12.2 of the Child, Family and Community Service Act, RSBC 1996, c. 46.

Policy:

1. UBC may consider applicants to direct-entry undergraduate programs under this policy who meet the University's general admission requirements, but who do not meet the competitive admission threshold set by the individual faculties and schools.
2. Applicants who wish to be considered under this admission category must indicate their eligibility upon application for admission to the University. Applicants will be considered on an individual basis by the applicable faculty or school. A number of factors indicative of personal readiness to succeed at UBC will be considered.
3. In order to be considered under this policy, applicants must fall within one or more of the following categories:
 - a. The applicant is or was in the continuing custody of a director or a designated representative in British Columbia for at least one year between the date the applicant turned 12 years of age and the date the applicant turned 19 years of age.
 - b. The applicant was in the guardianship of a director in British Columbia for at least one year between the date the applicant turned 12 years of age and the date the applicant turned 19 years of age.
 - c. The applicant was subject to a youth agreement in British Columbia on the day prior to the date that the applicant turned 19 years of age.
 - d. The applicant was subject to a temporary custody order in British Columbia for a period of three years or longer between the date the applicant turned 12 years of age and the date the applicant turned 19 years of age.

Calendar Statement:

British Columbia Youth in Care

UBC is dedicated to increasing access to, and participation in, post-secondary education for prospective students who are living or have lived as a child in care in British Columbia between the ages of 12 and 19 (see eligibility criteria below). UBC recognizes that a child in care may have faced challenges that may have impacted his or her education, and therefore provides a mechanism for flexibility with respect to competitive admission thresholds.

Applicants who wish to be considered under this admission category must indicate their eligibility upon application for admission to the University. Applicants will be considered on an individual basis by the applicable faculty or school. A number of factors indicative of personal readiness to succeed at UBC will be considered.

UBC may consider applicants to direct-entry undergraduate programs under this policy who meet the University's general admission requirements but who do not meet the competitive admission thresholds set by the individual faculties and schools.

In order to be considered under this policy, applicants must fall within one or more of the following categories:

- a. The applicant is or was in the continuing custody of a director or a designated representative in British Columbia for at least one year between the date the applicant turned 12 years of age and the date the applicant turned 19 years of age.
- b. The applicant was in the guardianship of a director in British Columbia for at least one year between the date the applicant turned 12 years of age and the date the applicant turned 19 years of age.
- c. The applicant was subject to a youth agreement in British Columbia on the day prior to the date that the applicant turned 19 years of age.
- d. The applicant was subject to a temporary custody order in British Columbia for a period of three years or longer between the date the applicant turned 12 years of age and the date the applicant turned 19 years of age.
